

Virtual Silent Saturday with Fr. Bill Sheehan Finding the Place of the Heart April 9

Contemplative Outreach of Columbus is offering a Silent Saturday. A Silent Saturday provides a few hours that are set aside for Centering Prayer, Lectio Divina, spiritual teaching and reflection. "Come rest awhile with the Lord" in preparation for Holy Week.

Fr Bill will discuss "Finding the Place of the Heart...Encouragement to go Deeper."

Fr. Bill is a priest and member of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate. He was present at the Lama retreat convened by Fr. Thomas Keating OCSO which gave birth to Contemplative Outreach. He has led countless centering prayer workshops and retreats. He also admits to being a follower of the Red Sox and Patriots, but he is first all a disciple of Jesus Christ.

Expect that the day will begin at 8:30am and last until 2:30pm.

Register by sending an email to Teri Leitwein at tmleitwein@gmail.com. and a zoom link will be sent to you a few days in advance.

The event is free. Nondeductible donations to Contemplative Outreach of Columbus to cover costs are welcome. They can be sent to the care of Bill Sparks at 450 Shale Ridge Ct. Powell, Ohio 43065.

